

OFFICE OF SECURITY WEEKLY STAFF MEETING

OS Conference Room

7 June 1973

2. Pertinent Items of Interest:

a. Reduction in Personnel

In connection with forty-two slots which will have to be eliminated by 1 July 1974, the Director of Security said he was hopeful that the majority could be handled by attrition. He added, however, that he felt morally obliged to express his belief that the Office would again have to declare certain personnel as surplus. He strongly urged, therefore, that those individuals whose situation reflected the status to retire on full annuity to give serious consideration to retiring before 30 June 1973 in order to receive the 6.1% cost of living increase. For example, he cited theoretically an employee who might be 55 or 56 years of age with 30-32 years service and with children aged 22, 23, and 24. All things being equal, performance included, the Director indicated he would be more inclined to identify such an individual as surplus rather than choosing a 45 year old with teen-age children and with no eligibility for a current annuity. However, he re-emphasized that he was not declaring that a surplus existed but, in his opinion, the likelihood, later on, was there.

d. Declassifying Testimony

The DD/PS is working with the Office of Legislative Counsel to declassify testimony furnished by certain Agency officials in connection with the Watergate probe by various Congressional Committees.

e. Reorganization

The Deputy Director of Security indicated that much work is still in progress relative to the reorganization of the Office and he anticipates that, in the near future, OS will hold a meeting in the auditorium for its personnel to provide them with all pertinent information, including space allocation and assignments.

i. Summer Employees

Of the anticipated 200 summer employees to be hired, 111 have been briefed to date on their security responsibilities to the Agency.

j. Inspector General

Dr. Don Chamberlain, who has been with the Agency's Office of Scientific Intelligence since its inception, will become the Inspector General on 25 June 1973.

k. Police Training

The Director of Security said that recently the Agency had asked an opinion of the Comptroller General, GAO concerning CIA's involvement in police training. The reply received indicated that there was no violation involved, but the Agency lacked authority to participate unless such activity was entered into on a reimbursable basis or specifically requested by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration. Mr. Osborn expressed his intention to discuss the matter in depth with the DDM&S in the near future.
